

Keerti H Singh - Founder & Chairperson, Hartek Foundation

Keerti H Singh, an inspiring businesswoman who currently serves as the Founder & Chairperson of Hartek Foundation, a CSR arm of Hartek Group. Since inception, she has been instrumental in shaping the company's HR, people culture, office administration, and Impact-oriented functions.

Under her leadership, HARTEK has successfully attracted, developed, and retained top talent, ensuring alignment with organizational goals and also been accredited 5 time Great Place to Work in India. Among the few Power and Renewable infrastructure companies to be named 5 times in a row. She has provided top-class infrastructure, fostered a positive culture, and ensured a safe work environment for all employees.

A pioneer in creating a company with a heart, Keerti H Singh has made significant strides, touching lives and promoting sustainable progress and development. She has led initiatives under Hartek Foundation aimed at uplifting less-privileged communities, building skill centres , focusing on capacity building, improving living conditions, and creating greater career opportunities.

Keerti H Singh holds B.Sc degree in Home Science and is also a distinguished alumna of Panjab University, where she completed her Post Graduation. Her dedication to Corporate Social Responsibility is evident through the initiatives that promote sustainable development and community upliftment. During her exceptional tenure, she has developed programs that enhance skills and foster professional growth highlighting her commitment to individual development. This diverse and robust skill set underpins her effective leadership and her significant contributions to Hartek Group.

Keerti H Singh firmly believes in the power of introspection and channeling one's inner strengths to achieve greater heights. Her vision and leadership reflect compassion, inclusion, and excellence, contributing to the holistic development of the organization and the community. As a conscientious corporate citizen, she continues to strive for a better world through socially meaningful initiatives.